Competitors are encouraged to sell samples. Scrip will be sold in $1 denominations (no cash sales). Samples can be small pieces of the competition meats, wings, sausage, etc., priced at either $1 or $2 per sample. No complete meals or beverages are to be sold as samples. In support of the Foundation’s fundraiser, meat is not to be given away.

At the end of the cookoff, 75% of scrip sales goes to the cooks and 25% will go to the Molalla River Education Foundation. Teams are also allowed to sell other BBQ products, such as sauces or rubs, following the same percentage split for donation to the Foundation.

Located next to the rodeo grounds, this event benefits the Molalla River Education Foundation which supports grants and scholarships in the Molalla River School District, including the Culinary Arts Program.

PURPOSE: To present the northwest’s premier PNWBA-sanctioned barbecue championship; to bring visitors to Oregon’s Mt. Hood Territory; to raise scholarship and grant money for the Molalla River School district, specifically for the hospitality and culinary arts program at Molalla High School.
